

CASAL DO RAMILO

CASAL DO RAMILO 'JACKPOT' LISBOA TINTO

LISBOA • PORTUGAL • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Since 1937, the Ramilo family has been producing wine in one of the most privileged locations in the Lisboa wine-making region surrounding Portugal's capital. This long, thin strip of vineyards runs along the breezy and maritime Atlantic coast, creating a series of unique micro-climates.

Wine Making

Hand-harvested, sustainably farmed, destemmed grapes and picked into small baskets to prevent damages. Primary fermentation using native yeasts in small stainless steel tanks at a consistent temperature.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, pasta, veal, and poultry dishes.

TASTING NOTES

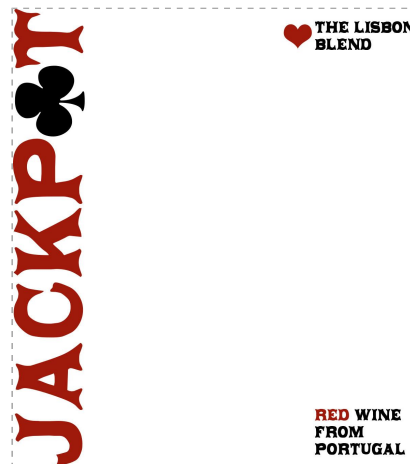

Portugal offers incredibly delicious wine for great values. This red wine is made from the Aragonez grape and shows juicy dark fruit and structured tannins. Unoaked, all stainless steel. A great choice for dinner parties.

50% Aragones & 50% Castelao grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
