LA VALENTINA 'SPELT RISERVA' ABRUZZO MONTEPULCIANO

ABRUZZO • ITALY • EUROPE

TASTING NOTES

The Spelt Montepulciano d'Abruzzo is a more robust and complex wine. The name Spelt refers to a type of wheat (faro in Italian) that once grew where the La Valentina winery and village of Spoltore (whose name itself derives from spelt) are now located.

Montepulciano grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
