JEAN MARC CROCHET SANCERRE BLANC

SANCERRE • LOIRE • FRANCE • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

The vineyards here surround the eponymous town, which sits atop a bean-shaped hill overlooking the river Loire. It is only since the mid-20th Century, and the creation of a protected Sancerre appellation, that “Sancerre” has been so strongly associated with white wines.

Wine Making

In the CROCHET family, we have cultivated the hills of Bué since the 16th century. We are born and we die as winegrowers. Jean-Marc joined his father in 1980, then Mathieu followed in 2007.

Together, they bring care and attention to their work in the vines. It is with passion, that they will welcome you into their tasting room, and invite you to discover their wines.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with pork, shellfish, spicy foods, vegetarian dishes, and goat cheese.

TASTING NOTES

Intense nose, tight yet bursting with citrus and hints of white flower. The palate has an extraordinary ripeness almost leading to some spicy, exotic fruit notes and impressive structure. Lovely balance and poise with energy and mineral vivacity. Very good length of flavor.

Sauvignon Blanc grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
