

HALKIA

HALKIA NEMEA AGIORGITIKO

NEMEA • PELOPONNESE • GREECE • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Halkia red is a classic, fresh, and natural vinification of the most planted red Greek grape, Agiorgitiko, from its birthplace in Nemea, by organic female grower Anna Halkia. An easy red wine with a rustic and fun character.

Wine Making

The grapes are lightly pressed so the juices can run free and then fermented in stainless steel tank using wild yeasts. Aged for 4 months in tank and bottled unfinned, unfiltered, with no SO₂.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, lamb, veal, deer, and venison.

TASTING NOTES

Halkia red is a classic, fresh, and natural vinification of the most planted red Greek grape, Agiorgitiko, from its birthplace in Nemea, by organic female grower Anna Halkia. An easy red wine with a rustic and fun character. Deep impenetrable red, deep red and black fruit, rusk bread, umami, velvety tannins.

Agiorgitiko grape blend.

View Tech Sheet Here

SCAN >>

More About
This Wine

ATTRIBUTES

- Available Size: 750mL (12 pc)
- Organic
- Female-Owned
- ABV%: 12.7
- Class: Red

WWW.EKLETIKON.COM/PORTFOLIO/HALKIA

VINTAGE IMPORTS

Importer & Distributor of Wines & Spirits

