ARESTI 'RESERVA' CURICO

PINOT NOIR

CURICO • CENTRAL VALLE • CHILE • SOUTH AMERICA

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

In 1951, Vicente Aresti Astica acquired the Bellavista Estate in Curicó, a renowned winegrowing valley, and started building a family tradition of excellence in winemaking with passion at the core of their philosophy. Over half a century of meticulous work resulted in a tradition of high-quality wines that were the labels of choice of the most prestigious wineries at that time.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, veal, deer, venison, and poultry dishes.

TASTING NOTES

Bright color with good intensity. Pleasant aromas of ripe black fruit with notes of black cherry, plums and ripe strawberries, together with some cinnamon and vanilla hints. Tasty in the palate with good concentration and a finish marked by delicate notes of strawberries. A medium bodied wine with nice volume and long lasting ending.

Pinot Noir grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
