POLIZIANO MONTEPULCIANO ROSSO

MONTEPULCIANO • TUSCANY • ITALY • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Founded in 1961 by Dino Carletti, Poliziano is located a few miles northeast of Montepulciano, Italy. Dino's son Frederico inherited the winery in 1982 and subsequently expanded the estate while improving overall quality.

Wine Making

Manually harvested with secondary selection by optical sorting. Fermented in

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, lamb, veal, poultry, and cured meats.

TASTING NOTES

From the Montepulciano area of Italy, this wine is mostly Sangiovese with some Merlot blended in. The result is an easy drinking, fresh layered cherry and berry red with nice Italian style and medium body. Nice hints of earth and menthol round this one out. Pair this with a pizza with the works.

Sangiovese & Merlot grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
