

DUCKMAN

DUCKMAN BAIRRADA ESPUMANTE BRUTO

BAIRRADA • PORTUGAL • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Maria João Pato started a project called “Duckman,” with a focus on making artisanal wines from only the local Bairrada grapes Baga, Bical, Cercial and Fernão Pires. This Bruto Branco comes from a tiny parcel of Fernão Pires on sandy soil, fermented in stainless steel, with wine from 1997 used as the ‘liqueur de tirage.’

Wine Making

Vinified with the traditional method and fermented in stainless steel tanks for three weeks. On lees for one year.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with shellfish, appetizers and snacks, and an aperitif.

TASTING NOTES

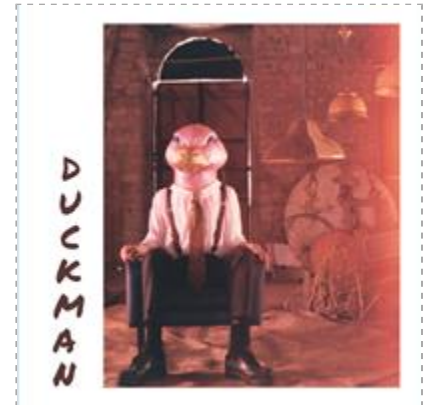

The salinity and fresh herbs of the Fernão Pires are balanced with the texture and subtle richness of long lees aging. A unique sparkling wine, and a very affordable bubbly accompaniment to upcoming fall meals.

Bical & Cercial grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
