LUSTAU 'DON NUNO' JEREZ OLOROSO SHERRY

JEREZ • ANDALUCIA • SPAIN • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

During the early years, Bodegas Lustau operated as an 'Almacenista'. The Lustau family began bottling their own sherries and exporting by 1950. In the 1980s they expanded their range and introduced the Almacenista range concept of buying and maturing casks from small bodegas to share excellent quality names and styles with enthusiasts around the world. In 1990 the winery was bought by the family-owned Louis Caballero group. Bodegas Lustau is considered a world-class benchmark for top-quality wines. Lustau produces all styles of sherry, from Manzanilla through to Pedro Ximénez, as well as special bottlings, single cask, VOS and VORS sherries.

Wine Making

Aged following an oxidative ageing for 12 years in Bodega La Campana in Jerez de la Frontera.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with hard or matured cheeses and red meats. Ideal with game dishes, stews and other rich meat dishes. It is also a perfect digestive.

TASTING NOTES

Dark bronze colour with golden rim. Pungent nutty aromas with a smoky wood background. Rich flavours of bitter chocolate, walnuts and baked chestnuts. This Oloroso wine has an intense, concentrated aftertaste, lightened by a tangy acidity.

Palomino grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
