DOMAINE DE GULLAMAN SAUVIGNON BLANC

GASCONY • SOUTHWEST • FRANCE • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Domaine de Guillaman is a sixth generation family-owned wine estate in Gascony, south-west France. Dominique Ferret took over the estate from his grandfather, Albert, and took the family business away from the traditional production of Armagnac to the production of high quality table wines under the Côtes de Gascogne IGP.

Wine Making

Gascony Sauvignon Blanc from the Ferret family vineyards at Domaine Guillaman, this is picked early in the season and at low temperatures, and cool-fermented before maturation on the lees.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with rich salmon, shellfish, and vegetarian dishes.

TASTING NOTES

Highly expressive on the nose with mouthwatering aromas of passion fruit, pineapple and citrus, the palate is crisp and refreshing, Granny Smith apple and tart grapefruit providing a cleansing contrast to the sweet tropical fruits.

Sauvignon Blanc grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
