

KALEU KALEU MENDOZA CHARDONNAY

MENDOZA • ARGENTINA • SOUTH AMERICA

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Mapuche Indians were the original inhabitants of Mendoza. In their language 'kaleu' is a guardian bird representing the reincarnated soul of their ancestors. Kaleu wines are produced by Bodega Los Haroldos, owned by 'Familia Falasco' who have over 70 years' experience producing fine wines.

Wine Making

This 100% Chardonnay is from the UCO valley in Mendoza. The annual temperature here is between 14° & 15°C and the locations of the vineyards vary from 900 to 1500 meters above sea level. The Soils here are shallow, alluvial with gravel and boulders along with steep slopes.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with vegetarian dishes, appetizers and snacks, lean fish, and mild and soft cheeses.

TASTING NOTES

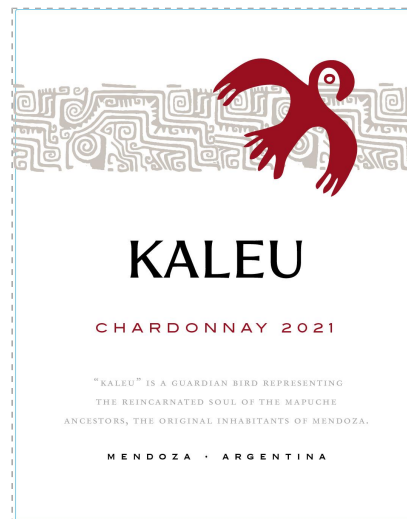

Intense gold with greenish shades, shiny, clean, and pure. Typical aromas reminiscent of tropical fruit where the citrus and vanilla stand out. Unctuous, complex and persistent, with excellent alcohol-acidity balance and a round and honeyed finish.

Chardonnay grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
