CONTINO GARNACHA RIOJA

RIOJA • SPAIN • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Contino, the first Rioja château 1973, impelled by CVNE and the owners of the 62-hectare property located in the Rioja Alavesa.

Wine Making

Contino Garnacha is made from grapes that are hand-harvested and carefully sorted in the vineyard before being subjected to a meticulous selection process in the winery. The grapes are placed in a French oak vat, where they undergo pre-fermentation maceration until fermentation begins spontaneously

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with lamb.

TASTING NOTES

Contino Garnacha is an aromatic and very fruity wine with delicate notes of low woodland, balsamic herbs and white pepper typical of the variety. The palate is deep, mineral tannins and very well integrated, which make it an elegant wine, while captivating and somewhat saline. With excellent acidity, silky.

Grenache grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
