

KAIKEN WINERY

KAIKEN 'INDOMITO' MENDOZA MALBEC

MENDOZA • ARGENTINA • SOUTH AMERICA

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

The Caiquén is a wild goose from Patagonia that flies across The Andes between Argentina and Chile. By embarking on this cross-border flight the Caiquén takes up a major challenge.

Wine Making

In 2000, Aurelio Montes, winemaker and founding member of Viña Montes in Chile, visited Mendoza and fell in love with its people, its terroir, the winegrowing culture and the opportunity to both learn and contribute his experience, anticipating the great potential pulsing in the area and Argentine vineyards in general.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with beef, lamb, and pork.

TASTING NOTES

Kaiken Indomito Malbec is an intense red color with purple highlights. Attractive notes of strawberries and floral aromas such as violets on the nose. There is a captivating sweet mouthfeel and a refreshing finish, with dark chocolate notes at the end.

Malbec grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
