

FAMIGLIA CIELO DAL 1908

CIELO ITALY ROSSO 2020

ITALY • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

The Cielo Family first began producing wines in the Veneto Region in 1908. Their tasty red blend is crafted from four varietals grown in separate regions to highlight the different growing areas throughout Italy: it features 42% Sangiovese from Abruzzo, 28% Merlot from the Veneto, 25% Cabernet from Sicily and 15% Primitivo from Apuglia.

Wine Making

After coming together, the wine matured for 7 months in new and used oak.

Food Suggestions

Pairs well with grilled, barbecued meats, medium-hard cheeses, but also for a family pasta or pizza.

TASTING NOTES

This wine possesses a garnet hue and showcases a bouquet of ripe red fruits, with notes of cherry and plum taking center stage, complemented by subtle hints of sun-dried tomato, Mediterranean herbs and a touch of spice. On the palate, it offers a harmonious balance of fruit-forward flavors and gentle tannins, culminating in a smooth, lingering finish that beckons another taste. there is just enough acidity to brighten and balance Cielo's overall round and fruity character.

A red grape blend.

This wine contains allergens, sulfites.
