MONICA SARDINIA DOC

MONICA DI SARDEGNA • SARDINIA • ITALY • EUROPE

TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

Cantina Castiadas, established in 1959, is a cooperative winery located in the Sarrabus region of southeastern Sardinia, Italy. The winery is renowned for producing wines that authentically reflect the island's rich viticultural heritage, particularly focusing on indigenous grape varieties such as Cannonau and Vermentino.?

Wine Making

Cantina Castiadas emphasizes a harmonious blend of traditional methods and modern innovations to showcase the unique characteristics of Sardinia's terroir. The vineyards benefit from a Mediterranean climate, tempered by proximity to the sea, and are rooted in soils composed of granitic sands and clays. This combination imparts distinctive intensity and minerality to their wines. ?

Food Suggestions

It pairs beautifully with soft cheeses, grilled red meats, and traditional Sardinian dishes based on lamb or pork. Its versatility makes it ideal for convivial occasions or as an elegant companion to a refined dinner, enriching every culinary experience with a touch of Sardinian elegance.

TASTING NOTES

Visually, it stands out for its lively ruby ??red color with violet reflections that testify to its youth. On the nose, it offers a complex bouquet of ripe red fruits such as cherries and blackberries, enriched by spicy nuances and a subtle floral touch. These olfactory notes anticipate a rich and enveloping palate, where balsamic notes and delicate aromatic herbs emerge. On the palate, Monica Genis is soft and well-structured, with delicate tannins that lead to a persistent and aromatic finish.

Cannonau grape blend.
