TECHNICAL DETAILS

The Estate

This Life is a lifestyle-driven wine project inspired by the laid-back elegance of Mediterranean rosé culture. The brand reflects the personal aesthetic of artist Norah Jones, focusing on wines that are expressive, approachable, and suited to everyday enjoyment. The rosé captures the freshness and easy-drinking style typical of southern French coastal wines.

Wine Making

Grapes are harvested during cool morning hours to preserve freshness and aromatics. Gentle pressing and short skin contact create the wine's pale pink hue. Fermentation takes place in temperature-controlled stainless steel to maintain fruit purity. The wine is bottled young to emphasize freshness and drinkability.

Food Suggestions

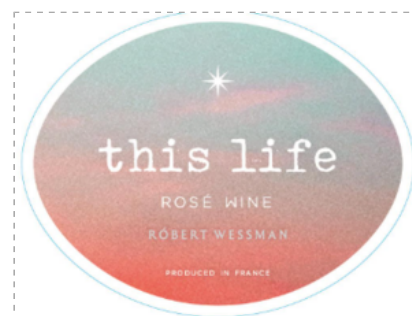

This rosé pairs beautifully with seafood, charcuterie, and Mediterranean salads. It also complements grilled vegetables, light pasta dishes, and goat cheese. A strong option for by-the-glass rosé programs and warm-weather menus.

TASTING NOTES

Our "This Life" Rosé opens with aromas of strawberry, raspberry, and watermelon layered with hints of citrus peel and white flowers. On the palate, it is light-bodied with bright red berry flavors and crisp acidity. A subtle mineral note adds freshness and balance. The texture is clean and refreshing without sweetness. The finish is dry, lively, and elegant.
