TECHNICAL DETAILS

Production Notes

This beverage is produced using hemp-derived THC integrated into a fast-acting emulsion system for more consistent onset timing. Tea and lemonade flavor components are blended to recreate a familiar Arnold Palmer-style profile. Sweetness and acidity are carefully balanced to maintain refreshment and sessionability. Production emphasizes flavor clarity, stability, and ease of consumption.

Serving Notes

Serve well chilled over ice with a lemon wheel garnish for a polished presentation. Its familiar flavor profile makes it especially approachable for consumers newer to THC beverages. Ideal for daytime gatherings, outdoor events, or relaxed social settings.

TASTING NOTES

The nose shows aromas of black tea, lemon zest, and subtle cane sugar sweetness. On the palate, the beverage balances citrus-driven lemonade freshness with smooth tea character and gentle tannin. Sweetness remains moderate, allowing the tea profile to maintain structure and drinkability. The carbonation is restrained, creating a softer mouthfeel than traditional soda-style expressions. The finish is crisp and refreshing with lingering lemon and tea notes.
